“Pop” In and Experience The Orchestra of Northern New York

Clayton, NY – TIPAF at the Clayton Opera House will be presenting the Orchestra of Northern New York’s annual pops concert “Broadway by Demand” on Thursday, July 1 at 7:30 pm. This event is the fourth annual Sidney T. Cox Memorial concert sponsored by the Northern New York Community Foundation. Tickets are $25 each for Reserved Seating or $20 each for General Admission and can be purchased at the Opera House Box Office, by calling 686-2200, or online at www.ClaytonOperaHouse.com.

In its 22nd year, the Orchestra is made up of more than 60 inspired professional musicians from our region, the Northeast, and Canada. Orchestra personnel have performed with the Montreal Symphony, Syracuse Symphony, National Arts Center Orchestra, and many other orchestras around the world. Under the direction of maestro Kenneth Andrews, they will present their annual pops concert, “Broadway by Demand.”

This concert will celebrate Independence Day and highlight great music from the Broadway Stage. The Orchestra invited fans this year to vote on the music that will be played from a selection of shows including (to name a few) "Oklahoma," "West Side Story," "Carousel," "My Fair Lady," and "The King and I." This concert will also feature Americana selections such as "Armed Forces Salute," "America the Beautiful," and "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Some of the other events that are rapidly approaching at the Opera House include Save the River's Rock-For -The-River event on Saturday, July 3 at 7:00 pm, Relay-For-Life's presentation of Comedian Dave Reilly on July 10, and the next installment of TIPAF's "Sunday Series" featuring the River Rat Rhythm Project Sunday, July 11 at 4:00 pm.
